

We are doomed if we don't D E F E N D Our PROPHET peace be upon him

This is the story of my oppressed Ummah, a narration of its tears and cries. For every rising sun brings a new test along with it for the Ummah and every evening brings the silent anxiety within the depths of the deep sea and its darkness. The long night of anguish accompanies every ending day, more painful than the day of resurrection itself. Wherein the droplets start to sink deep but the pirate steel them away from the oysters before they would reach the bottom. How many a seedlings try to tear the seeds and sprout out, but are torn away brutally before they could come forth. The tragedies and treacheries are everywhere, for the stories of treachery and hypocrisy are under every other turban and the satanic mind. And behind every other pious looking person you will find the existence of Balaam Bin Baurra. Yet, the existence of my Ummah is full of injuries that have become the cancers at the hands of the traders of Muslim blood. The mothers and daughters of the Ummah are wailing yet the tyrant Raja Dahir's sitting on the pulpits enjoy the tormented screams to satisfy their own whims. When the Kuffar rain down the fire upon the people of Iraq and Syria, the so-called leaders are among the first to clap for the the oppressor. When the crusaders bomb the people of Yemen and Khurasan the target is signaled and identified by the same group of traitors who have been hoarding the wealth of Ummah and misleading it in the name of Jihad for the sake of Allah.

The wounds of the blood-stained body of this Ummah were already innumerable, but now the limits have been crossed, the tyrants have started rubbing the salt upon the wounds. Every other day they blaspheme the Holy Prophet peace be upon him. Sometimes they publish the blasphemous cartoons and at times they degrade the principles of Islam openly. It is as if they are challenging the support of the Ummah which has become like foam of the waves falling back unrecognized. And here is the world of Islam consisting of one and a half billion Muslims watching the spectacle with wide eyes, no one raises a hand or even moves a lip. Yet the traitors of this ummah do not back down in teaching the Ummah the lessons of peace and passiveness. And their enmity with the people of Islam would never have been so strong if they had not been in the hands of the crusaders who were brought up by Mir Jafar and Mir Sadiq and the generations of the traitors who assembled in the monasteries to try to eradicate the roots of Islam.

It is true that it has devastated us but it did not surprise us, because when we turn the pages of history we definitely witness that for centuries these evil leaders of the Ummah have in fact been the guardians of the Cross and loyal to the more powerful King. Whether it is the criminal gang of those who betrayed Moses (PBUH) or those who took the initiative in insulting the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), whether it is the criminal group of those who denied to pay the Zakah in the caliphate of Abu Bakr Siddique (RA) or those who claimed to be false prophets. Whether it is those who legitimized the blood of Muslims for the Tartars or those who stood side by side with the infidels in this last Crusade and Zionist war. Hardly, anyone has done as much damage to Islam as these apostates have done in every age.

Whenever the Muslim blood is shed and the Ummah is wounded or its emotions are hurt and there is a fear that its descendants might wake up from the slumber or that some of them might stand up to it. The masked magicians in the dresses of pious religious men who are supported by the Tawagheet are called out to prevent the Ummah from waking up and to maintain the intoxication so that they could never attain the trust of the people. Therefore, nowadays they are always active on the official media and social networking sites to criticize the actions of the truthful Muslims. These apostates try their best to prevent the Muslims one way or the other from being observant of their religion, especially holding them back from targeting the crusaders and the apostates. Therefore, they announce demonstrations, protests, sit-ins and boycotts, they lead government-level rallies and processions, and in all of this, they try to convince the people that the Taghoot Akbar i.e.

United Nations is the only institution to refer to safeguard the honor of our beloved Prophet, thereby deceiving the people with their glibness into believing that Islam has taught this way to deal with the blasphemers of the Holy Prophet (PBUH). Although they have been quite successful with the help of the Taghooti media at their side but if someone holds onto the rope of Tawheed and treads the path of the Jihad defined by the book of Allah, they slander, refute and boycott that person so that others won't follow the same path. Therefore, they do not leave the media platforms until the pain, emotions and anger of the Ummah are not brought down after having them participated in futile protests, boycotts, burning of the flags and effigies and so on. And what has happened in the recent weeks to the Crusaders successive unholy audacity in France and Germany in general and in Islamic countries in particular, is no different. Likewise, these apostates played the same role in the blasphemy in Denmark and Germany.

And today, the evil scholars from Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Sudan and Algeria, and the "Ikhwan ul Muslimin" apostates in Egypt, who are condemning some of the Muslim attacks on the French Crusaders in retaliation for the blasphemy. And yet they were the leaders in the campaign against the Crusaders until yesterday, as if the responsibility of leading the Muslims fell on their shoulders. However, these are the hypocrites who, when the Mujahideen in France had killed hundreds of crusaders and wounded thousands in various blessed attacks carried out with the help of Allah The Almighty, were the same apostates who paid their condolences to the infidels and condemned the Mujaheden, and raised the flags of the Crusaders on their government buildings to express their solidarity towards the Kuffar.

And before that, when American and Israeli filmmakers aired a film called "Innocence of Muslims" and declared Islam as cancer, they acted as if they had the responsibility to lead Muslims in demonstrations around the world, and then when the US ambassador in the US embassy in Benghazi was killed, their truth was exposed in an instant, thus no one was more envious towards the Muslims who had attacked the crusaders more than these apostate leaders.

And here is Turkey, the pioneer of secularism, and its tyrant Erdogan, who destroys the lands of Muslims every day at the behest of the Crusaders, but also cries the crocodile tears in the media selling the treachery to the Muslims all over the world. And today betraying the Muslims as he is at the forefront of condoling the arrogant accused blasphemer-Samuel Patty who was killed by Muslims in France.

We are not far from those times where the traders of Muslim blood started trading the emotions of the Muslim world by giving the label of Ghazi to the likes of Khudabaksh, Abdul Aziz and Ilmuddin who attacked the cursed blasphemer Rajpal whose blasphemous book was printed in the publishing press of Hindustan. Then, some of these apostates went on defending them in the courts in order to gain the public sport. But, nowadays we clearly witness in the Indian subcontinent that these apostates are declaring their identity openly, and their friendship and love with the urine drinkers is as clear as the mid-day sun. Even if any disbeliever blasphemes the Holy Prophet (PBUH), all they care about is the wellbeing of their nation, and even after someone dares to insult the Prophet of Islam, the freedom and sovereignty of the blasphemer is not to be taken away, because in any case he is the fellow countryman after all; and even if he is an apostate accused Salman Rushdie.

And in the same way, we have seen the arrogant accused apostate Taslima Nasreen of Bangladesh, in spite of her dishonoring the glory of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), she is fully protected by the same government, the same apostate government for whom the apostate evil scholars keep advising the Muslims to obey.

And in the land of Pakistan, which has become a shield for the Hindus, if we take the events of a decade ago, who doesn't remember that when the German newspaper Die Welt aired insulting sketches, the body of Amir Abdul Rehman Cheema who attacked the editor was brought in by apostate Pakistani Army helicopters with great pomp, and its democratic apostates were at the forefront of rhetoric to receive their blessings from the people, so that they can prove their love for the Prophet in front of the people after the marathon race and before the attack on the Red Mosque. And enough for the sell-out evil scholars was to add another excuse to the list of reasons forbidding to go against the apostate regimes. Hence, no matter what these apostates do, after all that this unholy land will always be a state of Medinah for them, even if they become the forefront allies of the crusaders.

And then a short time later, when the insolence of the accused Pakistani Christian Asiya took place, the same apostate government, at the behest of Italy and the United States, began to assure her full protection. And, then when a series of demonstrations and protests were started by the Muslims, the one who was responsible for the protection of this accused Asiya was the one who was responsible for the administration of Ghazi Iltumud-Din. He was the same person who used to say “don't take notice of the drone strikes in Waziristan”.

in fact look at the aid from USA that we are getting. However, after that Pakistani apostate agencies became active to stifle anyone who opened his mouth, and a short time later, one evening, although one of his bodyguards brought him to the justice. But, what happened after that is not hidden from any ear nor from any eye, for the whole apostate government with its army, Judiciary and police were brought in to action, in order for this defender to be sentenced to death, for he did not even have to be a muwahid mujahid, but whoever he was, he had to die anyway. Because, the murder he had committed had the title of revenge for blasphemy, so they would do whatever they had to do to stop the Muslims and to please the Crusaders. Then, at the same time in the city of Karachi. One of the successors of Balaam ibn Ba'ura, gave the ruling that whatever the guardian did was not valid in Islam.

And in the midst of all this, there is an incident which has been erased from the minds of the Muslims by the tyrannical media. In order to break the will of the Kuffar and the apostates, Allah's servants attacked the center of Qadianis in Lahore, and in this blessed battle, they sent about a hundred Qadiani apostates to hell, and then it was the apostate army and police who thrived on the fatwas of the Balaams, and were keen to shed the pure blood of these lions.

On that day, the blasphemous laws enacted in the name of blasphemy was taunting the apostate scholars who still do not know whether Qadiani should be called a disbeliever or an apostate in their blasphemy law. The ignorant shaykh ul Islam also do not know why there is a difference in the ruling between a kaafir and an apostate, And what are the foundations of these differences.

And the people who settled in this country after losing 600,000 lives for it were trying to convince themselves of this lie by shaking their heads. Because their conscience had convinced them that everything that these evil Imams had done to them decades ago was the other side of the same coin of treachery and betrayal, the first side of that being in India. Even today, when the unholy voices of “my body, my will” are raised in the processions with the support of the same Tawgheet, the stench emanating from the defiled document of this self-made Kufr law seems to suffocate the same evil scholars who for decades have legitimized the disbelief of democracy and legislation by saying that it is written in the beginning of this constitution that sovereignty belongs to Allah Almighty alone.

And today the Sahwati groups in the field of jihad are a manifestation of the influence of these tyrannical forces between the Muslims, since the people of disbelief and apostasy do not feel the threat from anyone except those who fight and wage Jihad. Therefore, this field is an indication of both their fear and their effect, and it is true that truth never dies but it keeps changing its names.

After, the blasphemous sketches of 2006, when the whole world was engrossed in protests and demonstrations, on one hand, one of the lions of Allah, (Taqbala Allah) carried out a martyrdom attack on the Danish embassy in Islamabad, the capital of Pakistan, with his explosive vehicle thus restraining the rebellious crusaders.

And, so in 2009 when in response to the audacity of the growing crusaders and apostates in Pakistan, a group of martyrdom seekers attacked a Qadiani center in Lahore and warned Tawagheet that the lions of Allah have not been rendered desensitized. Off course, this was the al-Qaeda we loved and this was the Tehreek Taliban movement that was once a symbol of jihad. But unfortunately, today there are groups of apostates using the same titles who have sold their religion and conspired with the global tyrannical regimes against the people of Islam. Yes, these were the same groups who had been lying in wait for the Crusaders to annihilate them until yesterday. But, today they are guarding their fortresses, who until yesterday used to blow up the embassies of the Crusaders, today they are offering condolences to their victims, may Allah strike them, thus are there signs in it for the people of understanding?

Therefore, the doors of the truth are wide upon for everyone to see, and unfortunate is the one who does not mend his ways even after seeing this treachery and betrayal of these groups for decades. Now the issue is not limited to declaring someone as a disbeliever or a Khariji that any discussion should get rid of this debate in order to achieve the security, but today the Crusaders are playing with the honor of the Holy Prophet (PBUH). Beware, love is an essential part of our faith, so today there is no excuse for a Muslim to sit back.

And whoever thinks that by participating in demonstrations, boycotts and protests the tawagheet will support them are hugely mistaken, and those who think that by boycotting and protesting they have fulfilled the responsibility of taking the revenge on the blasphemers are indeed not being faithful with the Holy Prophet peace be upon him. And, if anyone thinks that the apostate Crusaders of the Sahawat group, i.e. the Taliban, etc., who are following the benevolence of Tawgheet, will avenge the insulting of the Prophet, then he is deliberately deceiving himself, because he has witnessed very well the devotion to the Crusaders and Tawgheet with each other. And if one hopes to protect the honor of the Prophet through al-Qaeda and Ansar al-Sharia, then perhaps he has forgotten their patriotic sympathy for the Coptic Christians in Egypt, their long-standing allegiance to the apostate Brotherhood, and their alliance with the Christians in Nigeria. Let it be known that whoever among them was the well-wisher of the Muslims and upon the straight path, has left them long ago.

If there is any support after Allah Almighty for the Muslims all over the world today, it is only the Islamic State, and today every insightful person has seen in the true sense that the Imam is indeed a shield and behind him and under his leadership only, a successful battle can be fought. While on the one hand the whole world of Islam is in dismay over the blasphemy of its Prophet (peace be upon him). From the evil scholars of the tyrannical rulers to the Sahawati apostates are all in a race to gain distinguished honor from their crusading masters. On the other hand it is the Islamic state alone who has pierced the dagger in to the chests of the crusaders in the defense of the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

It were the soldiers of Islamic State who had attacked Charlie Hebdo, the newspaper in Paris, France, in 2015, where several people, including its editor was annihilated, and even today, the lion that choked the necks of the Crusaders in Austria is a soldier of the Islamic State, who gave message to the Ummah-drowned in indifference and helplessness, that waiting hand-in-hand will not give them any excuse before Allah.

and today see the soldiers of Islamic state in Arabian Peninsula whom attacked the Crusaders of France in the city of Jeddah in defense of our beloved Messenger thereby showing the Muslims the right path to retaliate. Yes, this is the only way to deal with those who insult our beloved Messenger (PBUH).

So, O Muslims of the world, from now on no one has any excuse to stay behind from helping Allah's religion and the defense of his Prophet (PBUH). You have the means and the goals are in front of you, so seek help from Allah. Rise up to fight the Crusaders and the Jews and pull their tongues out of their throats so that the descendants of Ka'b ibn Ashraf and Abu Rafi 'may know that the sons of the Companions are not yet asleep. And if a successor of Balaam ibn Ba'urah comes forward to stop you from defending them, then start your action with him, and deal with these helpers of Tawagheet like Abdullah ibn Khatal and his slave women, who used to read blasphemous poetry to dishonor the Holy Prophet peace be upon him, if these apostates are not supporters and helpers of the Jews and Christians, then who else is? so if these chameleons of the Crusaders cannot stop you from defending your Prophet, then by Allah No one will be able to stop you.

So, follow the guidance of those before you, seeking help from Allah. Aim for the Crusaders with your flaming weapons, knives and daggers, trample them in the streets and poison their waters. Glory is enough for you to help you. Allah says (interpretation of the meaning): "O you who believe! You will get Allah's help and sufficiency. Indeed, Allah helps those who help Him." So, if you stand up for the defense of your Prophet, then you will surely have Allah's help and sufficiency with you. Surely Allah helps him who helps Allah. And O Muslims, the whole world is being divided into two tents of faith and hypocrisy. It is not possible for anyone to find a third place for himself. So, these are the gatherings of those faithful to the Crusaders, and these are the chosen armies against the followers of Tawheed. So, choose your side. Opposite to this is the Islamic State, the last of the Muslims who, after Allah, are leading the Ummah with the help of Allah, the Lord of Glory, and in every region of the world, they strive against the Crusaders, the Jews and all the tyrants. But you have to help this state, support it, give place to its sons and be loyal to its Imam. Flee, and stand behind him in the ranks of fighting. Indeed, the hand of Allah is on the people.

And last but not least, we congratulate our Mujahideen brothers in West Africa and Central Africa on their recent actions, in which they cut down the armies of the Crusaders. Indeed, this is the best recompense for daring to insult the Prophet PBUH. Indeed, you have relieved the hearts of the Muslims who were twisting and turning in grief and anger, so may Allah bless your deeds and reward you with good on behalf of the Muslim Ummah, Ameen, and praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.
